

I do not feel it is appropriate to approve the LPFM service and give it priority over existing FM translators. These translators have been serving communities for many years and deserve to the right to continue. The translators should have priority over LPFM.